REPUBLIC OF RWANDA

FOREWORD

Rwanda Cultural Heritage Academy (RCHA) is honored to undertake the responsibility of fostering a reading culture among Rwandans. As part of this, RCHA is proud to publish the 2024-2025 National Bibliography. The primary purpose of a National Bibliography is to provide a centralized catalogue that facilitates access to published works, preserves a country's literary and scholarly heritage, and ensures that these works are properly recorded for future generations. It often includes detailed bibliographic information such as the title, author, publisher, publication date, and identification numbers such as ISBN or ISSN.

The National Bibliography is a systematic listing of all bibliographic materials published within the country. It serves as a vital resource for tracking and documenting the nation's intellectual output, including literary and research works, journals, and national imprints from government institutions. It serves as a central catalogue of national publications, supports academic and cultural research, assists in collection development, and promotes the preservation of a nation's intellectual heritage. It is a valuable reference for locating specific works, tracking trends in the publishing industry, and supporting academic and literary research. In addition, it plays a critical role in preserving a country's intellectual and cultural heritage for future generations.

We are pleased to publish the 2024-2025 edition, comprising 107 publications. We extend our sincere gratitude to all partners in the book industry, publishers, authors, institutions, and all who generously contributed to the production of this National Bibliography of Rwanda.

INTRODUCTION

The current Rwanda National Bibliography (RNB) is an annual publication covering the period 2024–2025 is developed and published by Rwanda Cultural Heritage Academy (RCHA). Throughout National Library Services, RCHA collects annually all the publications emanating from the national publishers, authors, Government institutions, and academic institutions, analyze and classify these in order to develop and publish the National Bibliography of Rwanda.

This National Annual Bibliography is a compilation of the Rwandan publishing output; the process that requires a coordinated effort and depends on the close cooperation of government institutions, local publishers, high learning institutions and other organizations involved in book publishing to obtain information about newly published works. Publishers are strictly required to submit copies of their publications to the national library Services and should benefit from a successful national bibliography by higher visibility for their publications.

Together with all these entities in reading materials publishing, we ensure that this National Bibliography remains a comprehensive, accurate, and accessible record of our nation's intellectual and cultural heritage. Thereby we thank everyone who contributed to the development of the current national bibliography.
